

Civil Courage Society

In honour of Wallenberg and Sugihara

Raoul Wallenberg & Chiune Sugihara

embodied the best of human nature. These two diplomats, at great personal risk, rescued thousands of Jews during World War II.

The Wallenberg-Sugihara Civil Courage Society honours them, along with others who have faced serious risks as they stood up against injustice.

Raoul Wallenberg Day each January (since 2006) serves to recognize and promote acts of civil courage in our own society. There we present an award to a living person who has demonstrated exceptional civil courage.

Please join us in our quest to promote strong ethics and civil courage in our society. Would you like to nominate someone for the Wallenberg-Sugihara Civil Courage Award?
