

Civil Courage Society
in honour of Wallenberg and Sugihara

Vancouver
Twenty-First Annual

RAOUL WALLENBERG DAY

Sunday, April 19, 2026
1:30 p.m.

Peretz Centre
6184 Ash St (at 45th Ave)

Confronting Hate Speech and Scapegoating

Words matter. Hate speech and scapegoating aimed at minority groups can spiral into violence. We'll hear from three British Columbians about their experiences combatting hate speech and confronting the limits of freedom of speech.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Oqwilowgwa, Kim
Recalma-Clutesi
Pentlatch, Knowledge
Holder of Kwakwaka'wakw
(Qualicum First Nation)

Hasan Alam, Labour and human rights lawyer; and
President of BC Civil Liberties
Association

Marsha Lederman, author
& Globe and Mail columnist

FILM – “For Angela” is the inspiring story of a courageous mother and daughter who successfully confront bullying aimed at their indigenous identity.

wscs.ca

Doors open 1:00 p.m. • Donations are appreciated (at door or wscs.ca)
Canada Line (Oakridge or 49th Ave Stn) • Parking underground (from lane) or street

Generously supported by Peretz Centre and Jewish Film Centre